For Lorrie Wainwright, the frontier was a world she had eagerly embraced, a land of endless possibilities where she could forge a new life for herself and her family. Leaving behind the comforts and constraints of civilization, she set out on a journey westward, filled with dreams of a brighter future.

However, the reality of the frontier proved far more daunting than she had ever imagined. The relentless cold gnawed at her bones, the unforgiving terrain tested her strength, and the constant threat of danger
